Fill in the last half. Remember to rhyme.

Was in the spring -
My good gal left me -

Now she's gone - but I don't worry
'Cause I'm sitting on top of the world

She called me up -
Said come back, daddy, -

Ashes to ashes -
Show me a woman -

Missippi River, - long -
The woman I love is -

Don't like my peaches -
Get out of my orchard -

Don't you come here running -
I'll get me a woman -

Let the half you see snap in for the half you don’t see.

- one sunny day
- Lord she went away

Now she's gone - but I don't worry
'Cause I'm sitting on top of the world

- from down in El Paso
- Lord I need you so

- n’ dust to dust
- that a man can trust

- long, deep and wide
- on the other side

- don't you shake my tree
- let my peaches be

- holding out your hand
- like you got your man

Use the rhyming words to guide you along.
Recall one by its context - the other is almost a freebee.

Was in the spring - one sunny day

What's the rhyming word?

She called me up - from down in (What's that West Texas town?)

Said come back, _____, - Lord I need you so

Ashes to ashes - n' dust to dust

Show me a _____ that a _____ What's the rhyming word?

Missippi River, - long, deep and wide

The woman I ____ is - _____ side

Don't like my peaches - don't you shake my tree _____ orchard - let my _____ be

Don't you come here _____ - holding out your ____

I'll get me a _____ - like you got your man